

Pusey House Library & Archive Newsletter

No. 18 | Trinity Term 2022

Happy Summer! We hope those of you attending the Pusey House Conference are enjoying it so far.

Trinity Term has been busy and sociable. One highlight was the much-anticipated Pusey Arts Festival on 9th June. We enjoyed poetry, short stories, music (not least from our wonderful cassock-clad in-house band, The Pusettes) and your Librarian even acted in a play she wrote herself... Most importantly, we raised around £350 for Ukrainian refugees through Shelter Ukraine, a charity supported by our Lay Academic Fellow.

Two days after the Arts Festival, we enjoyed our Friends' Festival, with special services, an organ recital, a lecture and a delicious tea. If you're not yet a Friend of Pusey House, we would encourage you to consider joining, so that you can make the most of these sorts of events and help Pusey House to survive into the future. You can find out more at <http://www.puseyhouse.org.uk/become-a-friend-or-patron.html>.

In the Library and Archive, we've had lots of readers getting ready for exams and consulting the special collections. The Scriptorium has attracted students from a wide range of institutions and subjects. It's not too late to join us if you'd like to ~ although the Scriptorium is over for now, the Library and Archive will be open throughout the summer, with the exception of 8th and 11th July.

Welcome, Natalija!

We're delighted to announce the arrival of our new Project Cataloguer. Natalija Ristovska-Patargias joined us just a couple of weeks ago, on 13th June, but she's already made a great start on the remaining books in our cataloguing project.

Natalija has many years of experience of cataloguing and reader services work in the Bodleian Libraries. Her academic specialism is Byzantine Studies, in which she has an MSt from Exeter College. Alongside her role at Pusey House, she is a part-time Curatorial Assistant at the Ashmolean Museum.

A very warm welcome to Natalija!

Pusey House Conference

As many of you will know, the Pusey House Conference, Descent of the Dove, is taking place this week. It is the second-largest theological conference in the UK, with lots of famous names speaking (see left). A few last-minute tickets are still available via our website or on the door.

New Books

We've bought lots of new books recently and received some generous donations. Here is just a selection ~ for more, take a look at the New Books Trolley or the virtual display on the Library webpage.

Chow Choy, R. (2021). Ancestral feeling: postcolonial thoughts on Western Christian heritage. London: SCM Press.

Guite, M. (2022). Lifting the veil: imagination and the Kingdom of God. Norwich: Canterbury Press.

Louth, A. (ed.) (2022). The Oxford dictionary of the Christian Church. Oxford: Oxford University Press. 4th ed.

McGuckin, J. A. (2022). Origen of Alexandria: master theologian of the early church. Lanham, MD: Lexington Books.

Schmid, K. and Schröter, J. (2021). The making of the Bible: from first fragments to sacred scripture. Cambridge, MA: Harvard University Press.

Williams, R. (2021). The Malines Conversations: the beginnings of Anglican-Roman Catholic dialogue. New York: Paulist Press.

Yelton, M. (2022). The Community of Reparation to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament and the Church of St Alphege, Southwark. London: Anglo-Catholic History Society.

Newman Study Opportunity

Our friends at NINS (the USA's National Institute of Newman Studies) are keen to encourage Puseyites to apply for their exciting study opportunity, the NINS Visiting Scholars Program. The Program is designed to allow students and researchers with an interest in St John Henry Newman to spend a few weeks in Pennsylvania pursuing a project and using all the resources at NINS. There is a stipend, and free accommodation is provided.

If you'd like to find out more, details are at <https://www.newmanstudies.org/scholars-program>. Your Librarian can also put you in touch with staff at NINS if you'd like to contact someone directly.

Don't forget that, thanks to NINS, all of Pusey House's Newman archives are available to consult online! You can check them out at <https://digitalcollections.newmanstudies.org/>.

New Displays

In celebration of the Pusey House Conference, we have three new mini-displays in the reading room.

In the central exhibition case is a selection of items illustrating the Conference theme of the Holy Spirit, including Fr Henry Gordon Kenrick's beautiful manuscript draft of the English Missal, and a letter from Pusey House founder Henry Parry Liddon.

At the back of the reading room, you can enjoy a lovely selection of medals and badges from Anglo-Catholic guilds, societies, and holy places, generously donated to us by Mr Peter Thorn, Librarian of the Duckett Library at St John's R. C. Cathedral in Norwich. Next to that, we have Fr Richard Enraght's prison album, on view for a limited time only ~ please make sure to replace the blackout cloth after looking, so that the bright colours don't fade!

The Holy Spirit display and the medals and badges will be on show for at least the next few weeks, so please do pop in if you're around and would like to see them.
